Ashlynn has produced her own horse from the novice level beginning in 2015 to 5* and showjumping at 1.40 meters. After graduating college in 2016, she began pursuing her career on the East Coast. Ashlynn has been able to work with and learn from some of the best riders in the sport, as well as learning the ins and outs of top level competition. On that journey she has learned the skills to produce confident, happy horses and riders. Ashlynn hopes to share this knowledge with her home communities throughout Montana and area VII.
